Process for 990 review: The board of directors receives an electronic copy of the draft 990 prior to its annual meeting (typically held in January). The Treasurer reviews the 990 with the executive committee and then the full board. There is time allotted for questions and discussion prior to making a motion to approve/not approve the 990.

Process to monitor conflict of interest: Each new director is provided a copy of the conflict of interest policy and discloses any such conflict. Annually, board members review and sign the conflict of interest policy and disclose any conflict. A person who has a conflict of interest with respect to a contract or transaction that will be voted on at a meeting is not allowed to cast a vote.

Compensation process: The board of directors conducts an annual review of the executive director by soliciting input from all directors and meeting with the director to review the results prior to agreeing upon or offering a salary increase.

Public inspection: The 990 is available on the organization's website, on the Guidestar and Charities Review websites, and by request (paper or electronic versions). A review of organizational accomplishments is included in the winter newsletter each year.
